Wording for the Agenda:

Presentation of Heartsaver Award by the American Heart Association representative Mike Willingham to Russell Sharpe, Denise Clayburn, Matt Myers, Michael Nations, David Winkles and Jonathan Kempler for saving the life of Mr. Mike Aquino on January 31, 2011.

Background/History/Details:

On January 31, 2011 while working out at World Gym in Peachtree City, Mr. Mike Aquino stepped off an exercise treadmill and went into cardiac arrest. Unknown to many present, Mr. Aquino had 4 Guardian Angels nearby ready to step-in and do what they do on a daily basis and that is to assist and render aid to the community and citizens. Those four people were Russell Sharpe, Firefighter/EMT with Fayette County Department of Fire and Emergency, Denise Clayburn, Registered Nurse with Piedmont Fayette Hospital, Matt Myers, Police Officer with Peachtree City Police Department, and Michael Nations, Firefighter/EMT with Sandy Springs Fire Department. After Mr. Aquino passed out and was without a pulse, the four began performing CPR with the aid of an Automatic External Defibrillator (AED) that was present at the gym. After a round of CPR and being shocked once by the AED, Mr. Aquino was revived and began speaking and answering questions from the rescuers as the Peachtree City Fire Department's medic unit, David Winkles and Jonathan Kempler, arrived to transport Mr. Aquino to Piedmont Fayette Emergency Room for further evaluation and care. Mr. Aquino was later transported to Piedmont Atlanta Hospital for extensive cardiac surgery and care.
