Background/History/Details:

Mrs. Ada Demlow was born in San Raphael, California, spent her early years in Massachusetts (with one year in Italy) and her teen/adult years in Mississippi and Georgia. Early in life her parents instilled in her a love an passion for both books and music. She is so happy that she gets to share these passions in her work.

After graduating from library school in 1990, Ada worked as a librarian on the Gulf Cost of Mississippi for two years. She moved to the metro Atlanta area in the early 1990s, starting out in Cobb County before moving to Newnan in 2005. She is married to Mr. Jeff Demlow, a school teacher in Coweta County. They have two children.

Ada's passion is creating warm, welcoming community spaces where children and their parents can learn, connect, and grow together.

In her free time she likes to go to the theater, hike, read, tell stories, blog, and watch movies with her family. The storytime programs are attended weekly by over 300 children and parents. Ada was hired in 2010 as the Children's Librarian, and she is a valued and essential member of the team!
