Wording for the Agenda:

Recognition of Matt Bergen, Construction Inspector with Fayette County's Water System, who has been named Region Three Vice-Chairman of the year by the Georgia Utilities Coordinating Council.

Background/History/Details:

The purpose of the Georgia Utilities Coordinating Council (GUCC) is to promote and encourage the establishment of an utility location and coordination committee on a local level, as well as address areas and topics of concerns for all stakeholders. Generally, utility location and coordination committee projects and committee programs depend on local conditions. All, however, are founded in a spirit of cooperation by responsible parties who recognize that all improvements in their related activities require a great deal of communication. The benefits associated with a utility location and coordination committee are limited only by the level of activity of its members and the degree of support provided by participating companies and public agencies.

Construction Inspector Matt Bergen is the Vice-Chairman of the Fayette Utility Coordinating Committee, which is the local chapter of the Georgia Utilities Coordinating Council.

Mr. Bergen received his award at the GUCC Annual Conference in Dillard, Georgia on October 2, 2014. The award is voted on by his peers in all Utility Industries.
