COUNTY DEPARTMENT AGENDA REQUEST

Department:	Water System	Presenter(s):	Tony Parrott
Meeting Date:	Thursday, October 28, 2010	Type of Request:	New Business

Wording for the Agenda:

Approval of Water Committee's recommendation to have the County enter into an agreement with Eco-South, Inc. to perform mitigation work for the Camp Creek mitigation site on Helmer Road and authorization for the Chairman to execute said Agreement upon review and approval of the County Attorney.

Background/History/Details:

The Lake McIntosh Reservoir project requires extensive mitigation work. Having Eco-South perform the work needed will benefit the County by having a company do the work that has been approved by the Army Corp of Engineers. Work at the Camp Creek (Busey) site will include:

Construction Staking/Layout and Material Mobilization	$28,820.00
Completion of 5,068 LF of Priority 4 channel restoration	$203,400.00
Completion of 45.5 acres of wetland restoration/enhancement	$135,362.00
Plant Material and Planting (16,394 stems)	$ 87,216.00
Total Contract Price	$454,798.00

Eco South, Inc. is the firm the County has used many times to perform this specialized work.

This site is located on Helmer Road.

FINAL INVOICE, PAYMENT BY OWNER CONSTITUTES FULL ACCORD AND SATISFACTION FOR ALL AMOUNTS DUE FOR WORK PERFORMED UNDER THIS AGREEMENT.

Final payment will be made by OWNER within 30 calendar days of receipt of an acceptable invoice.

ARTICLE 8.0
CONTRACTOR SCOPE OF WORK

8.1 Upon acceptance of this agreement by both parties, Contractor agrees to perform the work described in Attachment A in exchange for the compensation from OWNER stated in Article 4.1. Contractor will provide all materials, equipment and labor necessary to complete the tasks as described in the Article 7.0.

ARTICLE 9.0
OBLIGATIONS OF CONTRACTOR

9.1 Independent Contractor. Contractor is an independent Contractor and nothing contained herein shall be construed as constituting any other relationship with OWNER, nor shall it be construed as creating any relationship whatsoever between OWNER and Contractor's employees. Accordingly, Contractor shall not be entitled as a result of this Agreement to any present or future benefits provided by OWNER or its affiliates to its employees. Nor will Contractor be considered an employee for purposes of any tax or contribution levied by the federal or any state or local government. Contractor has sole authority and responsibility to hire, fire, and otherwise control its employees. Contractor agrees to comply with all laws, rules, regulations, or ordinances applicable to an employer.

9.2 Performance. Contractor warrants that services shall be performed in a professional and businesslike manner. Further, the Contractor shall conduct all activities associated with this Agreement in a lawful and ethical manner, shall use its best efforts to enhance the good reputation and best interests of OWNER, and shall refrain from any conduct which will cause, or tend to cause, any injury to OWNER, its business, or its reputation.

The standard of care applicable to Contractor's services will be the degree of skill and diligence normally employed by professionals performing the same or similar services. The Contractor will correct any services not meeting this standard without additional compensation. If such deficiencies are not corrected in a timely manner, OWNER may cause the same to be corrected and deduct costs incurred from Contractor's compensation.

Subject to the above stated standard of care, the Contractor agrees that:

1. All materials including, but not limited to, designs, and plans furnished for the work shall have clear title; and

2. Such materials are free from valid claim for copyright or patent infringement.

3. All grading work performed hereunder shall be warranted to withstand any stream flow or flood event that does not exceed a "2x bankfull discharge" for a period of five (5) years after completion of all grading work. Contractor shall repair any and all failure that results from less than a "2x bankfull discharge" at no additional cost to OWNER during the warranty period. The surety's warranty period shall be limited to one year after completion of all grading work.

4. All plants are warranted for one year after the date of planting. If any plants die within one (1) year of planting, then Contractor agrees to replace said plants at no additional cost to OWNER.

9.3 Insurance. The Contractor shall maintain commercial and professional insurance standard and appropriate for the services the Contractor provides under this Agreement. Contractor agrees to indemnify, defend, and hold OWNER harmless from any and all claims, liabilities, obligations, governmental penalties, fines, and causes of action of whatsoever nature, including injury to or death of any person or damage to or destruction of any property, or court costs or attorney's fees resulting from any and all negligent acts or omissions of Contractor or any sub Contractor to this Agreement or any of their respective directors, officers, partners, principals, employees, or agents.

9.4 Permits, Licenses, and Fees. Contractor will obtain and pay for all permits and licenses required by law that are associated with the Contractor's performance of the work.

9.5 Confidentiality. Contractor will not disclose the nature of the services provided or engage in any other publicity or public media disclosures with respect to the services provided without the prior written consent of OWNER.

9.6 Access to Records. Contractor will maintain accounting records, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and practices, to substantiate all invoiced amounts. Records will be available for examination by OWNER during Contractor's normal business hours for a period of three years after Contractor submits its final invoice.

9.7 Completion and Acceptance. Contractor will provide with the delivery of final work products an explicit statement indicating that the Contractor considers the work complete. Within thirty (30) working days of receipt of such notice, OWNER will determine if the work has been satisfactorily completed and provide notice to the Contractor. Should the work product be determined to be unsatisfactory, the Contractor will take action and resubmit the corrected work until work is determined to be acceptable to OWNER. Acceptance of work by OWNER shall not limit or affect the responsibilities and liabilities of the Contractor under any other paragraphs of this Agreement.

9.8 Performance Bond. Contractor shall provide a performance bond for 100% the amount stated in Article 4.0, Section 4.1 of this Agreement. The Bond shall name OWNER as Obligee. Further, the Bonding Company providing surety must be authorized to do business by the Georgia Insurance Department and provide an original or certified copy of their Certificate of Authority or Power of Attorney, and must be listed in the Department of Treasury's publication of companies holding Certificates of Authority as acceptable surety on Federal Bonds and acceptable reinsuring companies.

ARTICLE 10.0
GENERAL PROVISIONS

10.1 Proprietary Information. All proposals, reports, correspondence, and other information, written or oral, such as business strategies, themes, concepts, approaches, etc., developed by and furnished to Contractor either by OWNER and/or OWNER's client, or others in connection with the Services provided are, and will remain, the property of OWNER and/or OWNER's client, and may not be copied or otherwise reproduced or used in any way except in connection with the Services, or disclosed to third Parties or used in any manner detrimental to the interests of OWNER or OWNER's client. This Article is valid for a period of three (3) years from the date of termination of this Agreement.

10.1.1 The provision of this Article shall not apply to data or information in the public domain at the time it was disclosed, or known to the Contractor at the time of disclosure, or which becomes known to the Contractor independently of the disclosing party without breach of this Agreement, or which is independently developed by the Contractor.

10.1.2 The Contractor shall not be liable for the disclosure of such data or information pursuant to judicial or governmental action.

10.2 Force Majeure. Contractor will not be liable to OWNER for delays resulting from labor strikes, riots, war, acts of governmental authorities, extraordinary weather conditions, or other natural catastrophe, or any other cause beyond the control or the Contractor.

10.3 Suspension. The Contractor will, upon notice from OWNER, suspend delay or interrupt all or part of the services. In such event, the Contractor will resume services upon notice from OWNER and an appropriate extension of time will be mutually agreed upon and added to the Contractor's time of performance, without any increase in price if the services are to be performed at a fixed fee.

10.4 Termination. OWNER may terminate this Agreement for its convenience upon notice to the Contractor. Subject to the other provisions of this Agreement governing payment for Services, OWNER will pay Contractor for the Services rendered in accordance with this Agreement through the termination date. Contractor shall submit a detailed invoice of the Services to OWNER. Contractor shall not be entitled to profit or other compensation for Services not performed. In accordance with O.C.G.A. § 36-60-13 (1) this Agreement shall terminate absolutely and without further obligation on the part of the county at the close of the calendar year in which it was executed and at the close of each succeeding calendar year for which it may be renewed as provided in this Code section; (2) this Agreement shall automatically renew unless the Board of Commissioners votes to terminate this Agreement on or before December 1 of the year in which it is to be terminated. The total obligation of the County for the calendar year of execution and for each year of renewal shall not exceed the price shown in the payment schedule as provided herein. Title to any supplies, materials, equipment, or other personal property shall remain in the Contractor until fully paid for by the County.

10.5 OWNER may terminate this Agreement for cause if:

A. Contractor fails to perform its obligations under this Agreement, and does not affect a prompt and timely cure;
B. Contractor undertakes a general assignment for the benefit of its creditors;
C. Contractor files a bankruptcy petition;
D. a receiver is appointed for Contractor's assets; or,
E. all or a substantial part of Contractor's assets are attached.

10.5.1 If OWNER terminates this Agreement for cause, then OWNER may, at its option:

A. Perform the Services in any manner it considers appropriate; and
B. deduct any additional costs OWNER incurs from any amount that would otherwise be due Contractor under this Agreement, including, without limitations, OWNER's attorney's fees related to Contractor's default, regardless of whether proceedings are instituted to enforce the provisions of this Agreement .

10.6 Changes. OWNER may add or delete work from the statement of work. If such adjustment results in an increase or decrease in the cost or time of performance an equitable adjustment will be negotiated by the Parties. All changes to this Agreement shall be in writing and signed by both Parties.

10.7 Conflict of Interest. Each Party shall notify the other immediately upon identification of any potential conflict of interest as generally described in FAR 9.5 which may arise from the provision of services to any other organization, government entity, or corporation through the term of this Agreement. This notification shall include a description of actions which the involved Party has taken or proposes to take to avoid, mitigate, or neutralize the actual or potential conflict of interest.

10.8 Waiver of Rights. The failure of either party to insist on a strict performance of any of the provisions of this Agreement shall not be deemed a waiver of any rights or remedies that such party may have for any subsequent breach, default, or non-performance on the part of the other.

10.9 Captions. The captions used in this Agreement are for purposes of convenience only and form no part of this Agreement. In no event shall they be deemed to limit or modify the text of this Agreement.

10.10 Severability. The invalidity or unenforceability of any portion(s) or provision(s) of this Agreement shall in no way affect the validity or enforceability of any other portion(s) or provision(s) hereof. Any invalid or unenforceable provision(s) shall be severed from the Agreement and the balance of the Agreement shall be construed and enforced as if the Agreement did not contain the particular portion(s) or provision(s) held to be invalid and/or unenforceable.

10.11 Choice of Law. This Agreement shall be interpreted and the rights of the Parties construed in accordance with laws of the state of Georgia.

10.12 Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement between the Parties. All prior Agreements, representations, statements, negotiations, and understandings are superseded.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, this Agreement has been executed by persons who are properly authorized to legally bind these respective organizations. Each party acknowledges that it has read the Agreement, understands it, and agrees to be bound by its terms.
