Wording for the Agenda:

Proclamation recognizing May 4, 2009 as "Honor Flight Fayette Day".

Background/History/Details:

Gail Sparrow, President of Honor Flight Fayette, has organized another flight of World War II veterans to Washington D.C. on May 4, 2009 in order to see their War Memorial. In 2008 Ms. Sparrow organized three similar flights and the veterans were honored for their sacrifices by the County for their efforts on each of those events.

Ms. Sparrow is asking that Fayette County once again honor the World War II veterans by proclaming May 4, 2009 "Honor Flight Fayette Day".

The proclamations presented by the Board of Commissioners are framed and used as a part of a display for the "send off" events for veterans on the morning of their flights.

PROCLAMATION
"HONOR FLIGHT FAYETTE DAY"

Whereas, Honor Flight Fayette Foundation, Inc. is a non-profit organization created to recognize and pay homage to our local World War II Veterans in appreciation for their great sacrifices and faithful service to our County; and

Whereas, Honor Flight Fayette is part of the National Honor Flight Network which was founded in 2004 to honor Veterans throughout America, with their primary goal to fly veterans to Washington, D.C. to visit their War Memorials, particularly World War II Veterans; and

Whereas, Because Honor Flight recognizes that our nation is losing World War II veterans at a rate of 1,200 per day and that sadly, most of them will never have had the opportunity to visit their National Memorial in Washington because it was not built until 2004, Honor Flight Fayette has taken on the urgent mission of honoring local World War II Veterans by providing them cost-free flights to visit their National Memorial; and

Whereas, On May 4, 2009, Honor Flight Fayette will host its fourth flight to Washington, providing 70 veterans of the greatest generation with an opportunity to visit the National World War II Memorial and to spend the day as "Guests of Honor", and to talk and share memories of service and sacrifice for our Great Nation;

Now therefore, we, the Board of Commissioners of Fayette County, Georgia, are hereby proud to proclaim May 4, 2009,

"HONOR FLIGHT FAYETTE DAY"

and in doing so we thank the founders of Honor Flight Fayette who selflessly initiated this effort that will mean so much to so many in our community; and further, though words cannot adequately express the gratitude, admiration and respect we hold for the Veterans who will participate in the history-making second flight to Washington on October 8, we wish this band of brothers and sisters a day of camaraderie, sharing, and tribute in recognition of a willingness to serve and sacrifice those many years ago that protected our Homeland, preserved our freedom, and reinforced America's position as the Greatest Nation in all the World.

So proclaimed this 23rd day of April, 2009, by the

BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS
