

PRESS RELEASE

ONE OPEN POSITION ON FAYETTE COUNTY'S PUBLIC FACILITIES AUTHORITY

The Fayette County Public Facilities Authority is a volunteer body, comprised of three individuals who are appointed to the Fayette County Board of Commissioners to one-year terms. Some of the duties of the Public Facilities Authority include, but are not limited to, the acquisitions, construction, equipping, maintaining, and operating of buildings and their facilities, and to sell or lease any or all such properties. The Public Facilities Authority meets infrequently on an as-needed basis. Said meetings take place at the Fayette County Administrative Complex, which is located at 140 Stonewall Avenue West, Suite 100, Fayetteville, Georgia.

The Fayette County Board of Commissioners would like to notify interested Fayette County citizens that one position on the Public Facilities Authority is available with a term beginning immediately and expiring on July 23, 2017.

The Fayette County Board of Commissioners will be accepting applications with resumes for these positions. Applications can be obtained by contacting Floyd Jones at (770) 305-5102 or at fjones@fayettecountyga.gov. All applications must be returned to Floyd Jones either by e-mail or at the Fayette County Administrative Complex, 140 Stonewall Avenue West, Suite 100, Fayetteville, Georgia by Friday, November 18, 2016.
