1. Call the meeting to order

Commissioner Steve Brown called the April 11, 2016 Public Arts Committee meeting to order at 7:00 p.m.

2. Approval of minutes for March 21, 2016 meeting

Donna Thompson noted that the meeting adjourned at 9:02 p.m. and not 9:02 a.m.

Charlie Cave made a motion to approve the March 21, 2016 meeting minutes with the change from 9:02 a.m. to the meeting adjourned at 9:02 p.m. The motion was seconded and unanimously approved.

3. Public Comments

Commissioner Brown stated that there has been a lot of discussion about building an art center with a conference style component. He stated that there is a very decent proposal on the table and $20 million dollars in private gift being given. He stated that an additional $10 million in gifts may also be available. He stated that it is a good chance for something great happening.

There were no further comments.

4. Discussion of the fire hydrant projects

Commissioner Brown stated that the students enjoyed this project. He stated that school will be out soon and so it is time to start this project. He stated that there will be a call issued for the contest. Hydrants will be picked out in multiple locations. County staff will begin to prime the hydrants in order to have them ready by May 2. The projects are to be completed by May 26.

No official vote was made on this item.

5. Discuss new project ideas

The Animal Shelter is on the Board of Commissioners' agenda for Thursday, April 14.

Commissioner Brown informed the committee that the fire hydrant project, chalk art project and the scarecrow competition will be held every year.

Commissioner Brown presented a slide show of different art project ideas. The committee discussed potential project ideas.

6. Adjourn

The meeting adjourned at 8:13 p.m. There was no meeting date set for the next meeting.
