V. New business

- a) Radio template needs – Director Vogt advised that she and Assistant Director Smith had attending factory acceptance testing in Texas with staff of EF Johnson and Radio One. Radio One will be out new “radio shop.” Agencies need to start thinking now about what templates they want or need for the new radios.
- b) Special meeting: Radio templates with Radio One – Director Vogt will be setting up a meeting in May for agencies to work with Radio One and figure out what the new radios can do and how they want to customize the radios to their agencies. Each agency needs to send a representative or representatives that will be able to ask and answer the questions to make sure that each agency is getting what they want and need. This is anticipated to be an all-day meeting. Please let Director Vogt know how many people will attend from your agency so that she can plan a venue. All agencies agreed that the week of May 17th would be best for this meeting. Director Vogt will schedule and notify.

- c) COVID-19 call taking questions – Director Vogt asked the agencies if communications officers need to continue asking the COVID screening questions. Chief Myers advised that he thought we should. Chief Deputy Rhodes advised that his agency feels the information is beneficial. Fire agencies advised that they already treat every call as a potential exposure regardless of the questions. After some discussion it was agreed to keep the screening questions in place for now with a sunset date of June 1. The June 1 date can be reevaluated if the situation changes.

VI. Board Member Comments

Chief O’conor had questions regarding Fire Cards for dispatchers. Compliance Manager Chet Ripka was present and advised that he would be meeting with Fire Chiefs after the meeting to discuss Fire Cards and obtain necessary signatures.
