Do you live in metro Atlanta or is your book set in Georgia?

Guidelines:

- To have your work considered for placement in the Local Author Collection, you must be a current or former resident of Metropolitan Atlanta, or the setting of your work must be in Georgia.
- Your book must be professionally bound (no stapled papers, no binders, etc.). The library is only accepting printed books for this collection (no CDs, DVDs, eBooks, etc.).
- Your book must be in new condition.
- Your book must be donated. The library does not purchase titles for this collection.
- Books in the Local Author Collection may become damaged or go missing. You will not be informed if this situation occurs. If you wish, a second donated copy may be accepted to replace a damaged or missing copy.
- Books donated to the Local Author Collection become the property of the Library, which has the prerogative to keep or dispose of it.
- You may donate up to three titles per year.

The author represents and warrants full ownership and/or legal rights to publish all material in this book, including artwork. I give the Fayette County Public Library permission to add my book to the library and I release all claims for compensation related to use of the materials. I have read, understand, and agree to submit my book according to the stated guidelines.
