Subject: Notice of Challenge to Eligibility to Vote

To Whom It May Concern:

I, Peter F. Pfeifer, am a registered voter in Fayette County. Please accept this correspondence as notice pursuant to O.C.G.A. § 21-2-230(a) of my challenge to the qualifications of certain individuals on Fayette County's voter list to vote in the run-off election on January 5, 2021.

The grounds for my challenge are that I have evidence that there are approximately 2,782 individuals registered to vote in Fayette County who reside outside the State of Georgia. This information was gathered by running the Fayette County voter registration data base against the National Change of Address Registry.

I have included with this challenge a thumb-drive containing a list of approximately 2,782 individuals who simultaneously appear on both:

- (a) the Fayette County voter registration data base, and
- (b) the National Change of Address Registry with an address listed outside of Fayette County.

Georgia law states that "[n]o person shall vote in any primary or election held in this state unless such person shall be... [a] resident of this state and of the county or municipality in which he or she seeks to vote. ..." O.C.G.A. § 21-2-216(a).

Georgia law specifies several rules for determining residency. For example, O.C.G.A. § 21-2-217(a)(4) states that Georgia residency is lost "[i]f a person removes to another state with the intention to making it such person's residence."

I believe that each of the individuals named on the attached thumb-drive has, as a result of registering their name and change of address to a location outside of Fayette

County, removed to another state with the intention of making the new state their residence. Thus, each individual has lost their residence in Fayette County, and consequently, each individual is ineligible to vote in Fayette County.

I respectfully request that the Fayette County Board of Elections "immediately consider this challenge and determine whether probable cause exists to sustain such challenge." O.C.G.A. §21-2-230(b).

I also respectfully request that the Fayette County Board of Elections inform me of its decision whether to find probable cause via email addressed to peterpfeifer@comcast.net and via US mail addressed to:

Peter F. Pfeifer

Thank you for your immediate consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

Peter F. Pfeifer
