Public Comment: None

Old Business:

Multi-use facility:

- Anita met with consultant.
- Questionnaire was done.
- Roof line for building was discussed. Flat roof will be done.
- Noise control panels for inside
- Still on schedule to submit plans
- Will be able to tap into city sewer
- Shirelle asked about budgets for flooring, lighting, etc...

New Business:

- Pavilion inclement weather policy – Already in place for rainouts but renters are asking about heat. No refunds are given but renters have one year to reschedule. General discussions were that people respond to heat in different ways and did not see a reason to update policy
- Luxury Picnics – Company inquired about hosting picnics that people pay for in county parks. General discussion were that this should not be allowed
- Fundraising – Discussion was had about County Associations doing fundraisers. Anita will come up with some guidance to associations to present

Staff Reports:

- Current open position for Charles position on the Recreation Commission.
- Mike Gumbinger resigned from his position on the Recreation Commission. This position will be posted
- Lots of pine beetles in trees at Kiwanis Park and McCurry Parks. Forestry association was called for recommendations. Some trees will have to be taken down and areas cleared in a radius around the removed trees
- Field lights at McCurry South were struck by lightning and are being repaired
- Several scoreboards went out over Labor Day weekend at some parks. They need to be replaced

Board Reports: None
