

Resources for Materials Not Accepted

1 CHaRM

The Center for Hard to Recycle Materials

A permanent drop-off facility for hard to recycle materials such as Styrofoam, textiles, glass, furniture, light bulbs, and electronics.

Click here to learn more about CHaRM

2 Earth911

Earth911 provides a database for recycling locations across the United States for everything from household items (i.e cooking oil eyeglasses)to hazardous waste and hard to recycle materials (i.e CFLs, antifreeze, carpet, concrete) .

Click here to learn where to take your household wastes.

3 Medicine Disposal

It is important to know how to properly and safely dispose of expired, unwanted, and unused prescription medications.

Click here to learn about medication disposal.

4 Georgia Power Refrigerator Recycling

Georgia Power offers customers free recycling through their Refrigerator Recycling program.

Click here to learn if you are eligible.

